FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Dr. Ted Ivarie, Dean of the School of Business at Eastern Illinois University, will be a visiting scholar for four weeks at Eastern Montana College to help strengthen the academic program in the School of Business and Economics.

Ivarie will be at the Montana school for two weeks now and for two weeks in July. He will assist in preparing the School of Business and Economics to meet accreditation standards.

He will conduct seminars and senior level courses, evaluate the present program, identify problems, advise on preparation of a self-study report, and be available to meet with faculty.

Eastern Montana is the third institution in the six-campus Montana university system Ivarie has assisted. He has been Dean of the School of Business at Eastern since 1979.
